EXPLANATION OF LECTURER SALARY

1. Lecturers' salaries are on an incremental scale from point 7 to point 14 inclusive (£22,857 - £30,653). The pay scale is available on request.
2. All new entrants are placed on point 7 of the scale, which is £22,857 pa inclusive, unless s/he has two or more year's experience, in which case the starting point is 8.
3. Where there is evidence of current earnings in excess of point 7, the applicant may be placed at the salary point higher than their current salary.
4. Progression from point 7 to 11 is automatic and is awarded annually on the anniversary of the date of appointment. In other words, every year the postholder will receive an incremental point increase (very approximately £1,000) in addition to the cost of living increase received by all staff.
5. When postholders have been at point 11 for one year, they will be invited to apply to progress to point 12 on the scale. Lecturers have to meet a simple set of criteria to ensure that they are performing satisfactorily and will then progress to point 12.
6. Progression from point 12 to point 14 is automatic and will be awarded annually on the anniversary of the date of appointment. Again, this means that every year the postholder will receive an incremental point increase (very approximately £1,000) in addition to the cost of living increase received by all staff.

Additional information for teaching applicants

West Thames College is committed to striving towards being an outstanding college.

As part of our commitment we offer our staff an entitlement to strong and supportive line management along with staff development opportunities and we provide 3 dedicated Development Days per year for specific staff training.

IT Skills

To enable us to meet our target of being outstanding we require that our teaching staff have a minimum level of IT skills:

- ability to use email
- understanding of WORD
- understanding of EXCEL
- ability to research via the internet
- ability to undertake basic IT trouble shooting

Literacy Skills

In accordance with the Life Long Learning UK regulations teaching staff are required to possess specific levels of literacy skills.

You will be required to provide evidence that you possess literacy skills at Level 2 which is equivalent to GCSE English, grade C or above. If you are unable to provide this evidence you will be required to complete a skills test to assess your literacy skills.

The assessment consists of 40 questions and the pass mark is 30. The assessment can last up to one hour.

Induction

We offer support and guidance to all new staff via our induction process. To identify the training needs and support required for new staff our selection process for lecturers will consist of the following:

1. A formal panel interview where you will be assessed against the person specification criteria.
2. A micro teach. You will be given a topic on which to prepare a micro teach and will be required to present this to a panel. If the topic is given on the day you will be given preparation time.

Training needs identified at interview will form part of your individual Induction training plan.

If you do not possess the minimum requirement upon entry into the organisation your manager will identify your needs via the Induction or Probation process and you will be enrolled onto an in-house course to ensure you meet the standards required to undertake your role.
